

In Memoriam – Gone But Not Forgotten
Prepared by ASSDF Webmaster, Daryl Stout
Last Updated Aug. 13, 2026

Over the years, many of those that were involved in square dancing, round dancing, line dancing, clogging, etc., both in Arkansas and elsewhere, have gone on to The Eternal Square. These individuals who have gone on before us...whether callers, cuers, taws (their spouses), or dancers...helped to make the hobby what it is today. While they're gone from our dance floors, they are certainly not forgotten. This file is to give an idea of what dancing was like in Arkansas many years ago, both with dancers and with clubs...and long time dancers may recognize many of these names and clubs.

I've also added the names of clubs that are no longer dancing...and also a listing of clubs that are still dancing, but have moved from their original dance locations. Note that there may be more than one instance of the same name for a particular club, but the clubs were in different cities. And, I've also included the names of national callers and cuers who have passed on as well, especially if they had called or cued special dances in Arkansas in the past. Names of callers and cuers who have "retired" from the hobby, are not noted, as I don't know if they're still around or not.

Thanks to callers Carolyn Birdsong and Roy Hestand, the late caller J.K. Fancher, retired cuer Mick Watts, dancers Jody King, Jim Riddle, Kathy Tankersly, Regina Turner, Lura Wade, Theresa Muth, Randy O. "Captain"

Bowling, Ginny Short, Roger Garner, Becky Hestand, Ellen Lewis, Patti Cummings, and to Lanita Pettey Hammett, among many others, for much of the info in this file. If you have word of any other callers, cuers, or dancers, who have passed away...or for Arkansas clubs that have disbanded, please send an email to the Editor at assdfmodernsquare@gmail.com – all I need is the club name and the city where they danced...or the name of the caller, cuer, their spouses, or dancers. Obviously, if you don't email me, there's no way I'm going to know about it. In each category noted, items are listed alphabetically.

The clubs that are still “dancing” may be DARK (not dancing) during the summer months. Go to <https://www.arkansassquaredance.com> for details, and call before you travel, in case of last minute cancellations.

Lastly, some clubs noted as “no longer dancing”, may actually still be dancing, but they are no longer ASSDF member clubs.
