

Hi there!!! Jeanne Winningham here with a quick note to all

Some people say I'm cheap,
Some people say I'm thrifty,
I just think I'm smart, and here's why:

We've already paid to go to the ASSDF Fall Festival in Clinton and saved $5.00 on each ticket.

My point: Now I have $10 extra to have some fun with, like buying a pretty fascinator (see below and on the next page) to match your dress on Saturday night during the horse race.

Orrrr...by saving even more money by not having to leave the venue to eat lunch; you can check out Jethro's café!! You could even bid on a gift basket!!!! Are you gettin' my drift???

Be smart like me and send your registration fee to Sheila Gesing right away, before you miss out on the savings!!!
