

A Brief History of the Arkansas State Square Dance Federation And More Prepared by Daryl Stout, ASSDF Editor, Webmaster, Circulation Chairman

The logo on the left was the ASSDF's original logo, and the logo on the right is its new logo, designed by Ben Schoenkase.

The ASSDF was formed in 1949, by Otis A. Higgins and Richard Dick. Max Smith was appointed in 1949 to plan and promote the first Federation dance; and was elected to serve as the first president in 1951.

At one time, there were over 75 clubs all across the state. In early 2021, there are barely over a dozen...however, due to COVID-19 restrictions, only 6 of the clubs are dancing.

First, here are a list of past presidents of the ASSDF, from 1951 to the present. Note that many of these dancers have passed away, but while they're gone, they're not forgotten.

Over the years, The Good Lord has given me the talent to write poetry, and I did the following poems.

- 1) For the ASSDF on its 40th anniversary in 1989.
- 2) To the late callers J.D. "Pappy" Kerr, and "Wild Bill" Wilder.

"Lordy, Lordy, Look Who's Forty" – Written By Daryl Stout

"Lordy, Lordy, Look Who's Forty", on this great occasion;
The one and only Arkansas State Square Dance Federation!!

The ASSDF itself, is rich in history;

Just like square dancing it promotes for everyone to see.

It has changed since it began in 1949,
With many dancers taking part through the years of time.

From just a few clubs way back then, to many clubs today;
Colorful as the falling leaves on an autumn day!!

There were many times of happiness, but sometimes, there was pain.
But through these struggles, it recovered, to yellowrocks again!!

It's news and happenings every month in "The Modern Square";
With square dance specials all around...the who, the what, and where.

The Festival Dance every year, with both squares and rounds;
And seeing many friends again, where yellowrocks abound!!

And, looking back now, at its past, and what the future brings;
Like square dancing, it promises many exciting things!!

So, join the party, dancers all, and square up for the fun;
The ASSDF's birthday is for everyone!!

Lordy, Lordy, look who's 40; let's start the celebration
Of the one and only Arkansas State Square Dance Federation!!

A Tribute To J.D. Kerr – Written By Daryl Stout

One of the best loved callers in Arkansas square dancing was J.D. “Pappy” Kerr. He started calling in 1960, and called until health issues forced him to retire in the late 1980's. While he was calling, he taught several others across Arkansas to call as well.

Since I was privileged to dance to J.D., I wrote a poem in tribute to him, and what he meant to square dance calling in Arkansas. Sadly, his wife, Billie, passed away several years ago...and J.D. died a few years later.

Excitement filled the square dance hall
Whenever J.D. Kerr would call.
We'd always rush at the chance
To go where J.D. called a dance.

He called great Basic, Mainstream, and Plus
At every dance without a fuss.
He made you listen, without debate;
Catching when you'd anticipate!!

No matter the level of the floor,
He'd have the dancers begging for more.
With just a small group of calls in line,
He'd call a dance that would blow your mind!!

Through these years, we've had a ball,
Dancing to his patter and singing calls.
He'd never leave you on the spot
When he'd call ICE COLD or GO RED HOT!!

He taught many folks over the years
In learning this activity with good cheer.
Like him each week in the hall,
He taught several folks to learn to call.

Sadly now, those days are past,
But the memories will ever last.
Remembering these days, happiness rules,
Even when his calling was “dirty pool”!!

And so, J.D., your square dance friends,
Thank you for memories that never end.
We miss your calling, with no regrets,
We wish you and Billie the very best.

A Tribute To “Wild Bill” Wilder – Written By Daryl Stout

Another one of the best loved callers in Arkansas square dancing was a caller named "Wild Bill" Wilder.

He started calling around the same time that J.D. "Pappy" Kerr began calling. Health issues in late 2013 forced him to scale back his calling.

Since I was also privileged to dance to Bill, I wrote a poem in tribute to him as well, and what he meant to square dance calling in Arkansas. Sadly, his wife, Barbara, passed away only a few months before Bill did.

When "Wild Bill" Wilder called a dance, it was such a joy.
His baritone voice, took the music; of every song, employed.
Whether it was a pattern call, or singing call done there.
It was an experience, that many dancers shared.

He'd weave a pattern like a quilt, with every pattern call.
With the choreography, he just had a ball.
Then he took the singing calls, with melodious tone.
The squares danced to the great voice, that was all his own.

Whether "Rubber Dolly" there, for his patter choice;
Or for "Green Green Grass Of Home", with his singing voice.
Or even with some other record, that he'd pick to play.
He made every square dance fun, all along the way.

For over fifty years, he called, with many dancing tips.
Focused on each call command, from his tone filled lips.
And the many clubs he served, as caller through the years.
In Arkansas and elsewhere, yes...he brought good times and cheer.

Hoedowners, or Twin City Stars, or other clubs that danced.
Or even on Mount Nebo there, we'd jump at the chance.
To square up, to what would be, a good time had by all.
Whether he did patter there, or a singing call.

He called on special weekends, too, both in and out of state.
He'd call in mornings, afternoons; evenings, nights, so late.

A new journey every tip, it really was a treat.
“Allemande left your corner now!! I'm going to go eat!!”

He made dancing a fun time, when the squares broke down.
When “Yang! Yang! Yang!” he would say, echoed all around.
Laughter then would fill the room, at what just occurred.
Even though we thought some calls were totally absurd!!

Even when he taught a class, to bring new dancers in.
He lovingly instructed, in what meant so much to him.
First Basic, Mainstream, and then Plus, so many calls to learn.
But, yellowrocks did there abound; at each tip, and turn.

For many years, his faithful taw, stood by his side there.
Barbara meant so much to him, and danced in many squares.
Both now in The Eternal Square, both sorely will be missed.
The memories of both of them, would fill a ton of lists.

While he and his taw are now gone, the memories remain.
The laughter and the good times there, help to ease the pain.
If there ever was a list, for a Callers Hall Of Fame;
“Wild Bill” Wilder would surely be, there among the names.

Lastly, here is a list of all cities for the National Square Dance Convention (NSDC). Billed as “The World’s Greatest Square Dance Event”, it’s held in a different city the 4 days up until the last Saturday of June each year. The NSDC is considered the pinnacle of a dancer’s career.

Originally, large crowds from the US, Canada, and around the world, would flock to these cities for 4 days of dancing, workshops, forums, and more. At the 1994 NSDC in Portland, Oregon...there were nearly 22,000 dancers in attendance.

The next year, in 1995, in Birmingham, Alabama...attendance dropped 50% – and has been going down ever since. Some years, there weren’t even 5000 registered or in attendance. To make matters worse, with the arrival of the CoronaVirus (COVID-19) in late 2019 and early 2020, numerous square and round dance festivals were canceled...due to strict health department guidelines (social distancing, masks, etc.)...and it even forced the cancellation of the 2020 NSDC which was to be in Spokane, Washington.
